

AFFILIATION WITH THE REPUBLICAN PARTY OF TEXAS BY OATH

ALL SIGNERS MUST HAVE THE FOLLOWING STATEMENT READ TO THEM BY THE OFFICER ADMINISTERING THE OATH: Pursuant to Rule 25 of the Rules of the Republican Party of Texas, registered voters or voters eligible to vote a limited ballot in a jurisdiction may participate in a convention in that jurisdiction by voting in the Republican Primary or by executing the following oath of affiliation: "I, the undersigned, swear that I have not voted in a primary election or participated in a convention of another party during this voting year. I hereby affiliate myself with the Republican Party. I understand that Section 162.014, Texas Election Code, provides that a person commits a Class C Misdemeanor offense if the person knowingly votes or attempts to vote in a primary election or participates or attempts to participate in a convention of a party after having voted in a primary election or participated in a convention of another party during the same voting year. A vote in a primary election is void if the voter previously voted in a primary election of another party or participated in a convention of another party during the same voting year." A person who participates in a convention or primary election of a party other than the Republican Party during the same voting year is disqualified from participation as a delegate, alternate, party officer, or nominee of the Republican Party at any level during the voting year.
